Josh Hudson/Jose Perez v. Asa Mulvey/Patrick Osuna

July 27, 2024

On a cold and windy day at Haggin Oaks Golf Course, Josh and Jose faced off against Asa and Pat in a fiercely contested match. The hardest part was finding a day that worked for everyone's busy schedules, but once they were on the course, the action heated up quickly. The match began with some back-and-forth play, but Josh and Jose jumped to an early lead, going up 2 after three holes, thanks in part to Jose's spectacular chip-in for birdie on the third. However, Asa quickly answered on the fourth hole with a clutch par net birdie, channeling his inner Dikembe Mutombo with a defiant "no, no, no" to bring his team back within one.

As the front nine progressed, Josh and Jose regained momentum when Jose birdied the seventh hole, putting them 2 up. But once again, Asa responded with another Mutombo-like "not in my house" moment, sinking a slam-dunk birdie putt on the eighth hole that crushed Josh and Jose's hopes of widening their lead. The front nine concluded with Josh and Jose holding a narrow 1-up advantage. The back nine began in similar fashion, with Josh and Jose taking the 10th hole to go 2 up. However, Pat stepped up to support Asa, winning holes 12 and 13 to bring the match level once more.

Josh, determined to regain the upper hand, won the 14th and 15th holes, putting his team 2 up with just three holes remaining. Asa refused to go down without a fight, carding a par net birdie on the 16th to keep his team in the match. The 17th hole was halved, setting up a dramatic showdown on the 18th. After all players hit solid drives, Josh found himself 230 yards from the pin for his second shot. With confidence and precision, he unleashed a low stinger that even Tiger Woods would envy, striking the pin and stopping just five feet away. Josh's natural eagle sealed a thrilling victory, capping off an unforgettable match.
